List of Banned Items

You may only sell items in your possession that you are legally entitled to sell. Indian Heritage reserves the right to remove other items that are not on these lists if they are considered offensive or are in breach of our terms and conditions.

If you are unsure of whether or not you are allowed to list an item please contact us.

Banned Items Below is a list of items which you are not allowed to sell on Indian Heritage

- Alcohol

The Liquor Control Act 1988 states that the sale of liquor to the public or any member of the public requires a licence. Unless you have registered as a wine seller with Indian Heritage, you may not sell alcohol of any nature on the site. You must:

- Display your licence number on all listings;
- Display the following notice on all listings for alcohol or wine: 'It is against the law to sell or supply alcohol to, or to obtain alcohol on behalf of, a person under the age of 18 years.'
- Ensure that all sales of alcohol or wine comply with relevant laws;
- Comply with relevant rules and guidelines relating to the advertisement of alcohol; and
- Ensure that no alcohol or wine is purchased by or delivered to any person under the legal age to purchase alcohol.
- Indian Heritage may, but is under no obligation to, verify the validity of your licence to sell alcohol. If requested to do so, you must cooperate with a request by Indian Heritage to supply any further evidence in relation to your licence or right to list alcohol for sale. If Indian Heritage is not satisfied that you are entitled to list alcohol or wine, it may remove any current listings for alcohol or wine placed by you without notice.
